

Historic Insights

by Gene Pisasale

Forgotten Founding Fathers: Pennsylvania and Delaware in the American Revolution

This lecture explores the foundations of our republic, with a special emphasis on the key roles that ten men from Pennsylvania and Delaware played in our struggle for liberty and creation of our system of government. These individuals were active in this grand drama, framing the debates as signers of the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution, hands-on participants in events which helped form “a more perfect union.”

Lecture Outline:

- Pennsylvania and Delaware: Building Blocks for the Republic
- Robert Morris: Financial Savior
- John Dickinson: Principled Statesman
- Gouverneur Morris: Preamble Architect
- Caesar Rodney: Fearless Rider
- Thomas McKean: Gifted Politician
- Gunning Bedford, Jr.: Small State Advocate
- James Wilson: Legal Scholar... and Golfer
- Thomas Fitzsimons: Forgotten Patriot
- George Clymer: Silent Benefactor
- George Read: Reluctant Revolutionary
- The Eyes of the Revolution; Unheralded Patriots
- Colonial Taverns and Coffeehouses
- Lessons from the Founding Fathers

Gene Pisasale is an historian and author who lives in Kennett Square, Pa. He’s written ten books, conducts an ongoing lecture series and contributes a column titled “Living History” to media outlets in the Philadelphia area. Gene earned a Master’s Degree summa cum laude in American history at American Public University. He began his career as a petroleum geologist after earning a Master’s Degree in petroleum geology from The University of Texas at Austin. He later worked as an energy analyst and portfolio manager in the investment and banking industries after earning an MBA Finance from San Diego State University, the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) and Certified Financial Planner (CFP) certifications. Gene has presented his lectures at numerous historical societies and venues, including Fort McHenry in Baltimore, Brandywine Battlefield Park and Hamilton Grange in New York. If your group has guest speakers, he welcomes inquiries for lecture presentations, book signings and other events.

Contact: (610) 925-1795; Gene@GenePisasale.com. Website: www.GenePisasale.com

08/08/22