

THE CHRISTIAN C. SANDERSON MUSEUM- A MAN'S LIFE, A NATION'S HISTORY

- Chris Sanderson's early life and family history
- Sanderson- historian, collector of Americana and precious relics
- Teacher, musician and lecturer- lover of anything historic and dedication to sharing it with others
- The Sanderson Museum in Chadds Ford and its many "gems"
- Some priceless relics- Herb Pennock baseball, paintings, battlefield remains, names from the centuries
- A very special reminder of our heritage- the "Chads Ford Barber Shop" sign
- Three generations of Wyeths and other famous artists
- Behind the scenes- rare, signed first editions and letters from the Civil War
- A great man and a rich heritage

Gene Pisasale- BIO

Gene is an historical mystery writer from the Main Line outside Philadelphia. An avid history buff, he started writing novels after working for 30 years in the energy and investment industry. He holds a Master's Degree in Petroleum Geology, an MBA Finance and is a licensed CFA and CFP. Gene is a member of the Chester County Historical Society, Chadds Ford Historical Society, Friends of Brandywine Creek State Park, American Friends of Lafayette, Friends of Brandywine Battlefield, is on the Board of Directors of the Sanderson Museum and is an approved speaker for the Delaware Humanities Forum. He has published three novels, conducts an ongoing lecture series on historical topics and is available for book signings. Gene and his wife Phyllis live in Kennett Square, Pennsylvania with their three cats. He has traveled extensively to many historic sites, including Gettysburg and the 'liberty trails' of Boston and Philadelphia.

Gene's historic novels include "Lafayette's Gold- The Lost Brandywine Treasure" and "Abandoned Address- The Secret of Frick's Lock".

(610) 925-1795 (home) (610) 304-3993 (cell)

www.GenePisasale.com

Gene@GenePisasale.com